

Terre Di Montepulciano d'Abruzzo DOC Abruzzo, Italy 2019

Denomination: DOC (Denominazione di Origine Controllata)

Category: Red wine

Region/ Country: Abruzzo, Italy

Grape Varietals: Montepulciano 100%

Color: Violet ruby red

Bouquet: The nose reveals a complexity of dried Cherry, mocha, black pepper, tobacco leaves, and ascents of boysenberry.

Taste: On the palate you get roundness with a light body and well-balanced supple tannins, accompanied by gorgeous velvety texture, hints of crushed blackberry, this wine displays a long and persistent lingering finish.

Alcohol Content: 13.5% vol.

Serving temperature: Between 17° C to 21° C

Food pairing suggestion: Mixed Cheeses, Mutton Skewers, Lasagna with meatballs, Short ribs, grilled lamb as well as Bolognese sauce and pasta.

SKU# TW-WRD07670-19

Terre Di Poggio Montepulciano D'abruzzo: this fabulous juicy red wine originates from mountainous Abruzzi hills between the Apennines foothills down to the Adriatic coast of east central Italy, a region known for its recent wave of mass-produced reds. The hillside vineyards, particularly in the northern areas, are planted on calcareous clay and benefit from warm and significant sun exposure, ventilated by dry breezes from the Adriatic Sea