

Santa Elvira Barolo DOCG

Piedmont, Italy 2015

Denomination: DOCG (Denominazione di Origine Controllata e Garantita)

Category: Red wine

Region/ Country: Piedmont, Italy

Grape Varietals: Nebbiolo 100%

Color: Dark garnet with brick-orange hue

Bouquet: The nose reveals a complexity of dried Cherry, mocha, black licorice, tobacco leaves, and mineral undertones.

Taste: On the palate you get roundness with a full body and well-balanced supple tannins, accompanied by gorgeous velvety texture, hints of dark cherry and cinnamon, this wine displays a long and persistent lingering finish.

Alcohol Content: 13.5% vol..

Serving temperature: Between 17° C to 21° C

Food pairing suggestion: Mixed Cheeses, mushroom dishes, osso buco, Short ribs, hearty meat-based stews, grilled lamb as well as duck with rich or hearty sauces.

SKU# TW-WRD07216

Santa Elvira Barolo and Barbaresco are produced with the highest standard of the Nebbiolo grapes from northern Italy in the Piedmont region, they are unique and very distinctive wines that display clear aromatic dry Cherry, rose, licorice and truffle notes expressing full-body, great balance, as well as elegance, finesse and complexity.